

From Tel Zeror to Tel Rekhesh 50 Years of Japanese Archaeological Expedition in Israel

November 29, 2014

Tachikawa Memorial Hall, Rikkyo University

10:00 Welcoming Speech – Shuichi Hasegawa (Rikkyo University)

Session 1 – Tel Zeror, 1964–1966, 1974

10:15 Akio Tsukimoto (Sophia University), Excavations at Tel Zeror – Friendship, Challenge and Goals

10:45 Eli Yannai (Israel Antiquities Authority), Tel Zeror excavations: a retrospective point of view

11:45 Ezra Marcus (Haifa University), The Japanese excavations at Tel Zeror: a pioneering archaeological expedition in the Sharon Coastal Plain

12:45 – 14:00 Lunch Break

Session 2 – Tel ‘En Gev, 1990–1992, 1998–1999, 2001–2004, 2010–2012

14:00 Kumi Makino (Kamakura Women University), Excavations at ‘En Gev – Struggle, efforts and surprising finds

14:30 David T. Sugimoto (Keio University) Tel ‘En Gev during the Iron Age: Relationship among Kingdoms of Israel, Geshur, and Aram Damascus

15:00 – 15:30 Short Break

Session 3 – Tel Rekhesh, 2006–2010, 2013–

15:30 Yitzhak Paz (Israel Antiquities Authority/Ben-Gurion University of the Negev), History of Tel Rekhesh in Light of Archaeological Excavations: From the Early Bronze Age to the Roman Period

16:30 Hisao Kuwabara (Tenri University), The significance and prospect of Tel Rekhesh Project

17:00 Video Speech – Amihai Mazar (Hebrew University of Jerusalem)

17:10 Concluding Remarks – Akio Tsukimoto (Sophia University)

18:20 Reception/Appreciation Ceremony

問い合わせ先:立教大学学部事務1課 03-3985-2511

住所:〒171-8501 東京都豊島区西池袋3-34-1

アクセス: JR各線・東武東上線・西武池袋線・
東京メトロ丸ノ内線／有楽町線／副都心線
「池袋駅」下車。西口より徒歩約7分。

