From Island to Island

This documentary film explores complex war memories of Taiwanese under Japanese rule. Through the voices of former Taiwanese employees in the Japanese military and residents in Southeast Asia as well as archival materials and cross-generational dialogues, it uncovers hidden histories, presenting a story of family memory and confronting a difficult past with courage. The film received the Best Documentary Award at the prestigious Golden Horse Awards in 2024, as well as the Best Film of the Year and Best Documentary Awards at the 2024 Taipei Film Festival.
